Bishop's Hunt for Seminarians

It is time once again for the annual Bishop's Hunt for Seminarians. The money raised from this goes to support the education of our future priests like Josiah, who spent time at our parishes this summer. If you are not a hunter, or do not wish to hunt, I want you to consider attending the dinner and social on the evening of October 9.

You can purchase tickets to go to the dinner and not have to be part of the hunt the next day. The dinner tickets are available for purchase on the Western SD Catholic Foundation website, <https://wsdcf.org/bishops-hunt/> or by scanning the code on the picture. This dinner is a catered meal, limited seating of 60 people, and it will be a chance to meet and visit with our bishop, Bishop Bullock at St. Hubert's Hideaway in Dallas, SD. There will also be a couple of items available for silent auction that night.

If you are not interested in the dinner, they are also raffling off tickets to three nice guns. The raffle tickets can also be found on that website too. All the money for this event goes to paying to educate our possible future priests. Finally, I ask that you pray that we have a successful hunt and fundraiser for seminary education. Thank you and God bless.
